ABOUT JOHN BOWEN

John Bowen is an International Trainer who has been accredited with British Dressage and British Eventing for 20 Years. During this time he has competed Internationally in Eventing and up to Grand Prix in Dressage. John put his own competition career on hold to concentrate on training others around 10 years ago, and has achieved enormous success with riders training with him.

Event riders trained by John have won Olympic, World Championship and European Championship medals, at Senior, Young Rider, and Junior Level, whilst Dressage riders training with him have won at Regional and National Championships up to Grand Prix. John teaches riders of all levels, from those just wishing to improve their riding without competition aspirations to those with serious competition plans for the future.

Johns prides himself on following correct training principles, with attention to the Scales of Training, and progressive Mental and Physical development of the Horse and Rider combination.
